

Winter Talks

2019

Burton Civic Society, each year presents a series of talks highlighting various topics that may be of interest to both members and friends of the society.

The talks are held at Burton Library, on Wednesday at 7:00pm for a 7:15pm start.

The cost of each talk is £2.00 for members and £3.00 for everyone else.

September 25th     Ian Hingley     Old Sayings

An exploration of sayings with an insight to their meanings

October 16th         Jerry Sanders     Burton Waterways

Burton's gateway to the world

November 20th     Richard Stone     Robert Bakewell Ironsmith

The man who created the birdcage arbour at Melbourne Hall and his craft.

February 19th     Gay Evans         Laurence Shirley

The last English nobleman hanged for murder. A tale of wealth, separation, murder and hanging, centred on Staunton Harold Hall in Leicestershire.

March 18th         Danny Wells     Cheers

A history of pubs and drinks.

April 22nd         Alan Hiley     Burton and Ashby Light Railway

A Journey in photos along the old tramway route to see how it looked then and how it looks now.

Should you require any more information on any aspects of the talks or the venue, then please do not hesitate to drop us an email on talks@burtoncivicsociety.org.uk

Winter Talks

2019

Burton Civic Society, each year presents a series of talks highlighting various topics that may be of interest to both members and friends of the society.

The talks are held at Burton Library, on Wednesday at 7:00pm for a 7:15pm start.

The cost of each talk is £2.00 for members and £3.00 for everyone else.

September 25th     Ian Hingley     Old Sayings

An exploration of sayings with an insight to their meanings

October 16th         Jerry Sanders     Burton Waterways

Burton's gateway to the world

November 20th     Richard Stone     Robert Bakewell Ironsmith

The man who created the birdcage arbour at Melbourne Hall and his craft.

February 19th     Gay Evans         Laurence Shirley

The last English nobleman hanged for murder. A tale of wealth, separation, murder and hanging, centred on Staunton Harold Hall in Leicestershire.

March 18th         Danny Wells     Cheers

A history of pubs and drinks.

April 22nd         Alan Hiley     Burton and Ashby Light Railway

A Journey in photos along the old tramway route to see how it looked then and how it looks now.

Should you require any more information on any aspects of the talks or the venue, then please do not hesitate to drop us an email on talks@burtoncivicsociety.org.uk